ACA, Association of Consulting Actuaries, has tabled its review and revealed that about 90 per cent private sector pension plans have been closed to new competitors. The agency has suggested taking a strong step to strengthen the workstation pension plans. On the other side, the government has replied that the automatic registration would be making the millions of Englishmen save their earnest money and the new enrollment system is ready to begin by the end month of the year. But the chairman of the agency ACA has stated that the modified enrollment system should broaden the private pension plans also. There are twenty three million workforces in the private sector and about 6 million employed in government sector. As the ACA has stated that about 5.5 million people in government department have availed the pension plans and less than two million have gone through the scheme.

ACA, very trusted adviser of pension plans in UK, has gone through a survey and found that more than 450 employees are investing in 560 pension plans. It also found that about 40 per cent of total workforces are closed to further accrual. The agency has brought very clear data before us stating the whole estimation of the opportunity closed for new joiners and also for the existing employees. In December, a new survey came in light and we can see that about 23 per cent of pension plans have been closed for more input by present employees and 80 per cent for new comers.

Stuart from ACA has said that the growing number of closings was not because the Englishmen are living longer, but other aspects that have turned the plans very costly to run. Automatic enrollment â€œ

The ACA stated that more than 25 per cent of total workforces had planned for the cost of workstation pension auto-registration, which is ready to take place by the month of October, when about 5th of staffs were about to cut their pension expenditure. It has been told that a strong step must be brought in action to encourage both the employers and staffs to increase pension savings. A senior official from DWP, Department for Work and Pension has said that the modified face of enrollment system is the most essential steps acted by any government to assist the employee to save their money in pension plans.
