Individuals who are self employed might also come across such instances. To help the self employed from the sudden financial disparity the Short term loans for unemployed is schemed.

Short term loans for unemployed are available in both the forms, secured and unsecured form. If you are able to pledge any collateral security against the borrowed amount, you should go for secured form. These loans provide you amount ranging from Â£ 1,000 to Â£75,000. The repayment period of these loans is of 10 to 25 years.

On the other hand, if you are a tenant or a non-homeowner and cannot place any asset or property against the borrowed amount, you should go for unsecured form. These loans are collateral-free. Through these funds, you can avail the amount ranging from Â£1,000 to Â£25,000 for the repayment term of 1 to 10 years. The rate of interest on the unsecured form is higher with comparison to the secured form due to absence of collateral.

You can go for either of them according to your preference and repayment ability. These loans are from the procedures of credit check. Less than perfect credit history like arrears, defaults or late payments will not create any hurdle in availing these loans. There is no verification
