MOTOROLA DEFY PRICE is lower than the other models compared to this range. Motorola DEFY mobile is an android smart phone. It is slim and single SIM mobile that fits easily in the pocket. It has a 3.7" WVGA touch screen display of high resolution. The main advantage is its latest web-messaging, entertainment and browsing capabilities and features. It offers edge to edge views of websites, videos and photos.

Motorola DEFY is a GSM phone that works in all the four bands in 2G network and with HSDPA in 3G networks. This phone was released in year 2010. The phone body is water and dust resistive. The display is scratch resistant. Hence it is a rugged mobile. The phone has a 512 MB RAM and internal storage memory of 32GB. It has a microSD card slot to expand the memory up to 32 GB. The mobile has Swype text entry, i.e. the software suggests the word to be typed.

Motorola DEFY model has a unique interface solution to manage emails, social updates and message in one place, named MOTOBLUR. It also offers CrystalTalk PLUS, which eliminates the background voice, while making and receiving calls. The mobile has two microphones, which are set intelligently in such a way that it eliminates background voice. The browser is enabled with Adobe Flash Lite and HTML browser. The mobile has a 5MP camera with LED flash and digital zoom. It also has an automatic focusing feature. The camera in the phone provides image stabilization and geo tagging features. It is DLNA compliant phone, which enables the phone to stream, save and share contents with DLNA compatible devices like PCs, HDTVs and game consoles.

The DEFY mobile supports WCDMA, GPRS, EDGE, HSDPA, WLAN, USB and Bluetooth data types. The OS is android version V2.1. It has proximity sensor, accelerometer sensor and compass. It supports SMS, MMS, IM, Push Email and Email. The phone also has FM radio, JAVA MIDP emulator and GPS. The model supports limited applications from Motorola. However, it has a very good music player. The phone support services like gmail, google search, google maps, youtube, google talk, Facebook, twitter, document viewer, photo editor and viewer, which are integrated into the phone. The mobile comes with a Li-Po battery with 1540mAh. The model comes in white and black color.

Feature wise, the model is comparable to the higher priced mobile, HTC Desire HD. However, for Motorola mobile price, it has some of the basic features of smart phone, which would be useful for active users. Motorola Defy price in India starts at Rs 13, 300/ approximately excluding taxes.
