

Article Side

Innovative Real Estate Agents Auckland are Leaders in Real Estate Agents
Commissions by Antonia Baker

Article published on February 3rd 2012 | Real Estate

Traditional real estate agents commissions have been quite high. They are normally a percentage of the sale or purchase of a house. This percentage ranges from place to place and depends on the economy.

Typically 6% of the sale price is real estate agents commissions. This is often several thousand dollars of a home's sales profits. Sellers get frustrated when they have to take this much of proceeds.

Innovative real estate agents Auckland do things differently. These professional real estate agents Auckland offer much lower rates. Lower real estate agents commission rates are nearly unheard of today.

Real estate agents Auckland have a very low 2% commission fee. This low percentage saves sellers nearly half of regular fees. This savings is evident by looking at sale numbers of one home.

A $550,000 home with traditional real estate fees is about $22,000. With real estate agents Auckland, the commission is much less. Their real estate agents commission rates are a much $12,650.

Real estate agents Auckland are ahead of their time in real estate. Their primary objective is to make home selling a good experience. It is to help sellers get enough money to use for their future house.

These rates are affordable real estate agents commission rates. Home owners can now afford to sell their homes with low rates. The freedom home owners have now to take care of their family is great.

Low real estate agents commission rates are possible for many reasons. Low rates are possible because of the organisation of this firm. This firm is innovative in how they run and manage their business.

Real estate agents Auckland company is very low cost overhead. This company is not a high street office real estate agency. Nor, do these real estate agents Auckland want a high street office.

These agents focus on selling a home rather than recruiting. They do not try to solicit more homes to list to make money. Instead, they put time and energy into marketing the houses they have.

This is how low real estate agents commission rates can be offered. Real estate agents commission rates like these are worth it. Agents have spent a lot of time marketing a home and earn commissions.

People do not mind paying these real estate agents commissions. These agents work for their fees and are dedicated professionals. This Auckland team is a leader in low real estate agents commissions.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/real-estate-articles/innovative-real-estate-agents-auckland-are-leaders-in-real-estate-agents-commissions.htm> - Article Side

Antonia Baker - About Author:

About Us

The Property Market is an innovative a real estate agents Auckland company. They use a new approach to buying and selling properties. This new approach meets the way people search for houses today. Most of this is done online and The Property Market fulfils this need. In addition, The Property Market provides a unique buying and selling experience as none are the same. To find out more about this innovative company, go to a <http://www.thepropertymarket.co.nz>.

Article Keywords:

Real estate agents Auckland, real estate agents commissions, real estate agents commission rates

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!