

Article Side

The demand of property in Delhi NCR by Maaya

Article published on May 24th 2012 | Real Estate

Having an own land or property in Delhi NCR is like a dream, the prices of properties are increasing as sky-scraping. But still the requirement and the demand of property in Delhi NCR is not less. Capital of India, Delhi is having its own reputation in market in terms of its properties. This city remains all time desired place for each and every person who wants to set up their business. Delhi is divided into North, East, South, West and Central regions. The most luxurious and posh section in Delhi are Central and south for both residential and commercial sectors. People who have invested their money in this city have gained tremendously business wise as well. There are different types of housing arrangements including small plots, small flats meant for individual houses or residential plots, big kothis, and multi-storied housing complexes as well as modern apartments.

Extremely demanded property in Delhi is residential plots or lands. Most of the people are investing their hard money in buying residential and commercial plots. Different size of plots is available and cost of those plots varies accordingly. People who have invested their money in this city have gained tremendously business wise as well. Premium in residential areas such as Vasant Vihar, Defense Colony, Kalkaji and Greater Kailash has been a significant number of transactions. As a result, there is very little stock waiting to be sold. Property value starts from Rs. 1.5 crore onward for simple 2/3 BHK Apartment. Even many people are purchasing the lands or residential plots in Delhi. Due to high demand of property many big real state builders are moving towards Faridabad, Noida, Gurgaon and Ghaziabad.

Gurgaon has emerged as one of the developed city in the NCR region. Gurgaon is one of the fastest rising real estate sectors in the country. It offers residential plots, residential and commercial properties. The most luxurious and posh section in Delhi are Central and south for both residential and commercial sectors. From last few years, Gurgaon property price has been increasing. It gives you an idea about that the price of plots is around Rs. 4,500 per square foot.

To find residential plots or lands in a best price, go to the various free online classified websites who offers you the full information regarding the plots and other properties with best location and price or to know more about residential plots in Delhi NCR visit Khojle.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/real-estate-articles/the-demand-of-property-in-delhi-ncr.htm> - Article Side

Maaya - About Author:

Visit free classified to see search results for property in Delhi NCR Like a residential plots in Delhi and a Gurgaon property like a Sale property in Delhi

Article Keywords:

property in Delhi NCR, residential plots in Delhi, Gurgaon property, Sale property in Delhi