When popular Pop music group Vengaboys sang, â€œweâ€™re going to Ibizaâ€”back to the islandâ€”we gonna have a partyâ€”in the Mediterranean Seaâ€”, we wondered what made them pick this particular place to write the entire song on it. The popularity of Ibiza reached beyond limit with this song from Vengaboys.

But, what made this popular euro dance pop group pick up Ibiza as their song theme? This is where the trick lies. Ibiza weekend trips used to be exciting and mesmerizing for Spanish people. To the most, people from different parts of Europe used to visit this beautiful Island, situated within the Mediterranean Sea. But after the enormous popularity of this song by Vengaboys, tourists from other continents also started touring this beautiful Balearic Island within the heart of Mediterranean Sea. Presently, Ibiza is one of the most visited tourist destinations worldwide. Yes, no other island in the world draws so many crowds like Ibiza.

Weekend in Ibiza is definitely one of the most pleasing holiday destinations to enjoy. It feels like sky and ocean have mixed together into one common line. What wonderful view of the sky can be observed during dawn? When it is about bathing experience in the sea, hours will pass by without notifying you. So fantastic is the experience during summer that people starts to fall in love with this place.

Ibiza is a big island and it takes some additional time to explore it properly. Ibiza Town is the capital of this island. The island is famous for its sizzling nightlife and adventurous day activities. Surfing, diving, skiing, parachuting, or even cruise rides are extremely popular in this part of the world. People also love to enjoy the calm and quiet activity of fishing. There are plenty of areas within this island that have been marked as â€œWorld Heritage Siteâ€” by UNESCO. Commercialization in those areas is strictly prohibited. There are several other historic sites and beautiful landmarks spread all throughout this large Balearic Island.
