Woodland shoes, first introduced in 1992 in India were an instant success. In the beginning there were only two selected outlets in New Delhi after which there have been around 200 elite stores in India. Currently, it is an international brand and is very popular as a brand that manufactures real tough shoes for the real hard world.

Quality shoes

With much hard work and efficiency in their production, today Woodland shoes are a household name and very much at the top. The company has managed all this in a very short time due to their futuristic vision and a passion for producing quality products that are worth the value. Woodland shoes offer a varied collection of men and women's footwear that come with innovation and surpass international quality standards.

It's first ever production the G-0092 in India for men was the biggest hit and could win the trust and loyalty of many of its customers. The shoe was available in five colors and is now remembered as the symbolic shoe of the woodland entry into the Indian market.

Market value

Consumers were thrilled to buy the shoes as they had a refreshing look from the usual formal wear and the fabric made informal wear or sports shoes that were very popular. But with the introduction of Woodland shoes, youths as well as grownups thronged the showrooms to own one of the most attractive shoes that bespoke style, quality and durability. The brand was able to attract even the diehard sports shoe fans towards their adventurous shoes.

Currently, woodland shoes symbolize adventure wear, style, and informal look and are truly found in the best price tag. Users are satisfied with their choice as they can have a great collection of shoes that come in a variety of colors and shapes. Not only shoes, Woodland provides you the best of everything right from apparels, belts, bags, accessories are all retailed in the global market via the internet.

Special features

What make Woodland shoes unique are their special features. The shoes have abrasion resistant outsole, they have cushioned insole and have extra cushioned midsole. Another interesting part is that the shoes are all hand stitched and that makes them really tough. Although made with the toughest materials, they are light weight and come with Moccasin construction.
