For your son who is about to turn 18, personalised birthday gifts would be just perfect. You can gift him a personalised football book. This wonderful handmade book captures some of the glorious events of your son's favourite team, related to this sport. This leatherette book can be personalised by inscribing the name of your son's favourite football team, name of the giver, and the receiver. You can even imprint a personal note which is usually printed on the football book's first sleeve. Your message should not be more than 20 words. This tabloid size book (38 X 30 cm) is very convenient for you to store and handle.

Christening gifts:

The religious ceremony of christening is said to be the most important occasion in the life of a Christian individual. It is customary to shower your love and blessings on the new born baby with fabulous christening gifts. As silver is considered to be an auspicious metal by the Christian community you can present the infant silver plated train money box with tooth and curl carriages, Vera Wang silver plated baby piggy bank, my first year double photo frame, my christening day frame knife fork and spoon, or an elegant christening cross necklace in box as christening gifts.
