Popular fashion retailer Quanaoredep.com currently has new stocks of spring clothing, all of which features the upcoming trends and styles for the spring season.

Quanaoredep.com is one of the Vietnam's favourite high street clothes shops. The retailer is well-known for selling cat-walk inspired clothing at low-cost prices that the public can afford, which is why our clothing is so incredibly sought-after.

Right now, the retailer has a range of new arrivals for its spring collection, and all of this season's biggest trends are featured in the dresses, tops, trousers and footwear that are currently available. For instance, shoppers can find floral maxi dresses, animal print vest tops, knitted batwing tops, skater dresses and much more.

The store sells clothes in sizes six to 18 and stocks footwear from size two to eight, so all sizes can enjoy our's unique fashions. Each new piece for the spring collection has been carefully styled by my's in-house designers and can be bought either online or in-store now, with some items being online exclusives to benefit online shoppers.

Mr Tang, The store Manager of Quanaoredep.com said: "We have put much thought into this season's clothing and know that all of our customers will be able to find something that suits their style perfectly. We understand that our customers like to be able to get their seasonal wardrobes ready early, so to make the most of our new arrivals you can go online now to take a look at and buy our products."

Along with our's new clothing, the retailer also has a number of items listed in its clearance sale, so customers could get more for their money while shopping. Next day customers can get free delivery when spending more than VND500.000 in one visit.
