We all love gifts and gifts are inherent part of our lives. Gifts are used in different occasions to celebrate the cause of the occasion as well as to deepen the bonds of the relationships. For example on occasions like birthdays and anniversaries people gift their loved ones to show their affection. This process of portraying emotions through gifts is nothing new but is prevalent from the ancient times. If we search through the great historical events we will come across numerous examples of kings and queens who had shown some extravagant way of presenting gifts. But for common people like us, it becomes really difficult to choose pocket friendly gifts for our loved ones for various occasions.

Birthday gifts are probably the most famous kinds of gifts in the world. Everyday millions of people have their birthday and numerous gifts are sold everyday. Let me give you some ideas for birthday gifts. A birthday gift will depend on various factors, the most important being age. For example if you present a bottle of champagne on the fifth birthday of a kid it will be ridiculous. In the same way if you are presenting a toy train as a gift to your colleague it will be a funny event too. Hence we should be a little specific while choosing birthday gifts.

Suppose, one of your colleagues has his birthday and everyone has paid their shares to you since this time it is your duty to buy the gift. It is suggested that you go for a personalized gift. Search for a group photo in which the person is present. If there is no such photo arrange for one. Buy a nice frame and put the picture in it. Wrap the gift with colorful papers. Buy a cake and call everybody in the cafeteria. Present him the cake and the wrapped gift. It will surely make the person happy and he will remember celebrating this birthday with office colleagues forever. If personalized gifts are not possible you can go for chocolate boxes, wallet with a diary and many more such things as a birthday gifts. Pens are also great choices for a birthday gifts. Anything you give, just remember that more than the gift itself what matters is the gesture. Hence think of the person and gift whatever you feel like giving as gifts are nothing but portrayal of your emotions.
