Gifts have a way of making people happy. There must be very few people on earth who do not like receiving gifts. Humans are social creatures and hence have a number of occasions where they meet and celebrate together, like Christmas. Different people all over the world celebrate different kinds of occasions. But in these occasions, one thing is common, these occasions are incomplete without gifts. There are some occasions though that are common to people all over the world, like birthdays, anniversaries and so on. The most number of gifts sold all over the world are probably birthday gifts. Birthdays are indeed very special occasions and gifts play an important role to make it even more special for you as well as your loved one.

Suppose, it is the 30th birthday of your sister and she is feeling depressed about turning 30. You can cheer her up by a well thought of gift. As 30th birthday gifts, you can go for something special and hence what can be better than personalized gifts? Gift her a day at the spa to make her feel rejuvenated and beautiful. This gift would surely cheer her up. You can also gift her a tour package to a destination of her choice. You can also gift her a piece of diamond jewelry, not a ring probably but maybe an earring or a pendant, small yet beautiful. But these birthday gifts are pretty expensive. If you think you cannot afford these, there are a number of options for inexpensive 30th birthday gifts too. For any kinds of gifts, what matters is not the material or the value or the gift itself as such. What really matters is the thought behind the gift and the gesture itself. Hence do not fret if you cannot afford an expensive gift, given below are a host of ideas for inexpensive birthday gifts.

A book that is a very well read, for a person who loves reading, a CD of lovely songs for a person who loves listening to music, a movie DVD for an avid movie watcher and so on can be great 30th birthday gifts if the person concerned is not someone very close to you. But if the person is really close to you like maybe your sister as given in the example above, you can devote some time of yours and make a scrapbook of memories for her.
