Fruit Of The loom is one of the biggest names in plain cheap t-shirts and has been around since 1851 in Kentucky USA. They offer a huge range of t-shirts aimed at the t-shirt printing market for all types of use such as everything from work wear, school wear all the way through to hen and stag parties and have a huge range of different products, colors and sizes for adults and children.

All the t-shirts are making from ring-spun cotton to give you the up most comfort and quality of stitching for the best finish possible.

When anybody talks about plain t-shirts or t-shirt printing for any occasion then the first name mentioned is always Fruit Of The Loom as they are the most recognized brand of t-shirt in its field.

When talking about Polo Shirts there is only one name and that's Hanes.

They are a US brand and are currently the biggest buyer of cotton in the world. Their polo shirts are of the finest quality and are amazing for fashion and all aspects of printing too.

They are famous for their Hanes Beefy polo shirts which are simply stunning and boast a color range of 21 different colors. One of the main features is the quality, if you put them up to any of the top fashion polo shirts such as Lacoste they hold their own as you simply can tell the difference, why is this? There is no difference they are all made from 100% ring-spun cotton to offer the best quality possible this is why the Hanes Beefy Polo Shirt is recognized worldwide by all polo shirt printers.

One of the biggest names in Work wear has to be Dickies, their range is huge and offers the best quality possible and above all value for money too.

They were formed in Texas USA in 1918 where they began making overalls for the work wear industry and are now known and regarded as one of the biggest work wear brands in the world and are worn in all industries from building sites to farm to plumbers and electricians, they really do have work wear for all.

Some of their biggest selling items range from t-shirts, sleeveless polo shirts, long sleeve polo shirts and polo shirts through to work wear trousers overalls and health and safety wear, their range is so vast it spans to over 5000 products.
