From The Alternative Store, Famous Stars and Straps or FSAS for short, is a clothing and accessories brands that was created by the former drummer of the famous band Blink 182 named Travis Barker. He actually set up the company during the year 1999 after he was being inspired by punk rock as well as hip hop and his Skater lifestyle. He also said himself that he draws from everything under the sun. They sell a huge range of clothing here at The Alternative Store, which includes girls clothing that is just simple, but shapely and fitting. Other than that, they also sell lots of stuff from the mens range, which is really mean looking.

Aside from that, with hot heels and striking designs, we cannot deny the fact that Iron Fist shoes are great examples in terms of making a statement as well as taking prints of astounding graphic designs and then turning them into a work of art. If you have a pair of gorgeous Iron Fist shoes, then you can flash that hot new nail varnish that you have been dying to show off and cannot do it because of the type of shoes that you are once wearing. Actually, this type of shoe excels in terms of making shoes that are bold, striking and even aggressive, but they still never forget that they are made especially for women.

Here at The Alternative Store, it has been said that many of the Iron Fist shoes are detailed with a cool bow that will work somehow. Much like with the Bayou platform shoes, it almost passed a lovely pair of party shoes but when you are going to get closer with it, you will notice that Iron Fist shoes are an amalgamation of artwork that is so amazing and a dark sense of humour, spiriting up a certainly unique style and it could also give high fashion a kick when it hurts. With this, they are well known because of their bold, unique designs and then Iron Fist shoes are one of their raw as well as impulsive lines of apparel.

Just like the other range of sports footwear that this online store is selling, DC clothing also features the same attitude to design. Other than that, it will also bring you the best of the street style as well as the cutting edge production that makes their collection of clothing totally unique. DC's street wear has been also influenced by the skater scene since the early 90's and then it continued to keep up with, and sometimes ahead of, the times. The range has actually spread beyond the urban and been adopted by snowboarders and surfers. That is why when you are going to see The Alternative Store items, you will know that you are looking at quality products that represents a real free spirit.
