Wedding is an occasion where two people get united. It is a ceremony between, different customs, religion, tradition, social classes. It is an exchange of two different wedding vows and presentation of gifts. Wedding gifts are the only way to convey your love and affection for the couples. Your gift will remain to the couple as a token of your love for them. An occasion is incomplete without good and significant gifts. The gift that you choose for them will make you different from the rest. Therefore, make some unique idea before you buy for the wedding couple.

It is important to consider certain points while making your choice. Sending a wedding gift is not just sending something material to the couple. Your gift will become a medium to convey your love and to congratulate them as it is a new beginning of their life. You should consider your relation with the couples- it may be very formal or casual. If it is formal then, you can choose-
