The island of Cuba is well known for white sandy beaches and its warm sunny weather. Over the past twenty years or so, the country has been welcoming visitors from all over the world who want to experience everything this tropical paradise has to offer. You now have the opportunity to experience their own journey of Cuba that will allow you to enjoy the island and promote well-planned way. Cuba is one of the last communist countries in the world is not overrun by tourists because of sort of political isolation for decades. It is located about sixty miles from the key west Florida, and taking the set to open its economy and increase its foreign exchange earnings through tourism.

To learn more about the country you will be able to see and experience all its historical sites firsthand, there is no better way to achieve this than to book a tour of Cuba. Each tour in Cuba, is scheduled a little different, which allows to select the type of culture that are most interested in learning more about. A typical highly educational route would stop at the university of Havana, university of Santiago de Cuba, Cuba's national art schools (ISA), the museum of fine arts Cuban collection, and Cuba's literacy museum. If this sounds like too much to take in, please do not hesitate. There are a lot of free time scheduled every day, so you can enjoy the beach, fishing, or diving and other water sports, not to mention many of Cuba's best restaurants serve wonderful seafood.
