India is a multi-cultural country with diverse traditional, religious, regional, geographical and linguistic varieties. This is because immigrants from different parts of the world have made India their homeland, leaving imprints of their culture in the society of India. An experience of Travel in India will let the tourists see these diverse elements that form the mixed society of India. From the deserts of Rajasthan in the west to the lush green mountains of Arunachal Pradesh in the east every region or state has their own unique traditions or customs. Also the people residing in snow capped mountains of Kashmir in the north to the shores of Kanyakumari in the south follow different religions and speak different languages. A travel to India should include the length and breadth of the country to experience India at the grass-root level.

The tour operators in India have tried their level best to exploit this diverse tourism potential of India. They have specially designed the india holiday packages so that the tourism potential of India is fully showcased before the visitors. The tours are either theme based or region based. The most popular holiday tours on offer are state tours, golden triangle (Delhi-Agra-Jaipur) tour, medicinal tours, adventure tours, historical tours, luxury train tours, religious tours, luxury tours, wildlife tours, honeymoon tours, Bollywood tours, festival special tours, tea tour, classic India tour, exhibition and fair tours etc. Added travel services such as Car hire, travel insurance, pick up and drop facility at the airport, expert guide availability and well prepared tour itinerary increase customer satisfaction and they enjoy a memorable stay in India.

A visitor should start off his vacations in India with a tour in Delhi. Delhi being the capital city of India and having an international airport, acts as a transit point to travel to other destinations of India. After landing in Delhi a tourist should spend some days in the city, visiting its varied tourist attractions before moving on to other cities. The travel agents in Delhi cover all the tourist attractions of Delhi which include historical monuments, religious places, memorials, landmarks, market places, eateries etc.

Among other travel products the Goa tour packages and Kerala tour packages are worth exploring. A Goa tour offers a very memorable holiday experience especially to the adventure seekers and honeymoon couples. A meeting place of blue sea, golden beaches and warm sun, the tourists can enjoy activities like sunbathing, beach games and water sports. The state of Kerala offers its guests a very natural holiday experience. Aptly called "God's Own Country" Kerala consist of beautiful locals specially the backwaters where the beauty of mother earth can be seen in its pristine best. The additional ayurveda and spa treatments available here give the tourists peace of mind and body.
