The word “wine” seems the “world” to an oenophile. Wine is a luscious drink that gives the d sense of relaxation and left the guzzler refreshed. According to Kathy Mattea “A gourmet meal without a glass of wine just seems tragic to me somehow”. Actually wine is an essential beverage of almost every occasion i.e. be it a grand party or just three course meal. The reason behind the popularity of wine is its aroma and elegance and that is why individuals are showing more interest in winery tours these days.

Moreover, most of the wineries are located at some of the most exotic and beautiful place on earth. Napa valley is the one such location that lies at approximately fifty miles North of San Francisco. Truly speaking, Napa valley is one of the most attractive as well as breathtaking travel destinations in the world. This valley offers you spectacular and picturesque views and ample opportunities to taste and experience world’s best wines and gives opportunity to learn how these are made and bottled. In Napa Valley wine tours are the best way to experience the exquisiteness of its various wineries.

Napa Valley wine tours also proffer you a chance to explore Beringer Vineyards, the historical winery of Napa Valley as well as a visit to the Culinary Institute of America that was initially the home to the Christian Brothers. You can also visit Del Dotto, Clos Pegase Winery, Quintessa, Green Truck Cellars and many more places that lie along the Napa valley in order to get the best of Napa Winery Tours.

Besides Napa valley, Sonoma Valley wine tours are another best thing that an oenophile can not afford to miss. Sonoma Valley wine tours include five different wine regions namely Los Carneros District, Sonoma Valley, Russian River Valley, and Dry Creek Valley along with Alexander Valley. Sonoma Valley is the one of the most explored wineries as number of tourist and enthusiast from every corner of world come here every year to taste some of the best brews. Coupled with best brews, you can also taste some of the famous delicacies such as Pinot Grigio, Pinot Noir, Fume Blanc, Merlot, Tresor, Eldorado Gold, PreVail Back Forty, and PreVail West Face etc.
