Whether you're a surfing pro or just looking for a fun and relaxing holiday in beautiful sunshine a surf camp in Portugal's feted Algarve region offers something for everyone.

For solo travellers, groups of friends and couples, riding the waves at surf camp is the ideal holiday for anyone looking for a laid-back good time whilst sampling the great outdoors.

Fantastic surfing conditions are the initial attraction for enthusiasts and casual surfers alike, however, as many travellers are discovering there are a variety of reasons to visit a surf camp in Portugal.

The Surfing Holiday Catered Towards You

One of the main advantages of a tailored surfing holiday in Portugal is that it offers you both the reassurance and comfort of planned activities besides the freedom and independence to explore at your own leisure.

Stunning scenery is only a short walk away allowing you to discover the beauty of the local area at your convenience.

Back at your base staying at luxury villa accommodation you can relax after a hard day's surf in the sun and bond with your fellow travellers whilst enjoying excellent amenities.

How you choose to wind down is up to you; if you'd prefer an ice cold glass of beer or wine in the hot tub or perhaps a relaxing yoga session, there's plenty of variety to ensure each day is never dull.

Perhaps, most importantly, a surf camp in Portugal knows how to cater for its clientele. You'll find here an exhilarating mixture of adventure and laid-back fun that attracts so many people towards the sport and way of life.

Hit the beach

A surf camp is a great way to both introduce you for the first time to the excitement of riding waves as well as being suitable for more experienced surfers.

The Algarve benefits from great all-year-round conditions for beginners and rippers alike and from the moment you wake up through hitting the beach to coming back you'll be well looked after by friendly staff.

Travel to and from the best beach of the day is pre-arranged so that you can just relax on the way there in air-conditioned vans. All of the equipment you'll need will be offered to you by the surf crew and there's no need to worry about having to go in search of fuel for tired bodies. A packed lunch is provided for you so that you can enjoy the next session reinvigorated and pumped up.

Once you return back to your lodgings you can relax in whatever way you choose before an evening filled with superb restaurant food and drinks as well as a chance to experience the area's vibrant nightlife.

With so many activities on offer to supplement your fun on the boards a surf camp is the ideal way to meet new people, learn new skills and get a sun tan-all in stylish and comfortable accommodation!
