Pamplona is one exciting holiday choice for any tourist traveling in Spain. Besides the numerous sights of attractions, there are plentiful fiestas and festivals to enjoy throughout the year as there are diverse fiestas and folklore in Pamplona.

Bullfighting Fiesta

One of the more famous and spectacular fiestas celebrated in Pamplona is the San Fermin Fiesta. This is a worldwide attention grabbing fiesta as the whole world tunes in on the television to view the herd of frenzy bulls rampaging through the town streets with hundreds of participants in traditional attire running ahead of the bulls trying to avoid bloodshed. These bull-run participants don white shirts and red belts to dash ahead of the bulls behind which leave some injured or exhilarated.

Pamplona thrills the worldwide audience with this spectacle every year as it is a steadfast tradition celebrated. The bull running ends at the town bullring where bullfights come on in the evening by experienced and skilled toreros.

This Sanfermines festival commences on July 7th with a whole week of celebration. Pamplona revels in dancing, singing and drinking in an enormous party which welcomes every foreigner and local, young and old. This is the most exciting fiesta week in Pamplona.

Other fiestas

There are many other fiestas in Pamplona which are celebrated with the same amount of vigor and regal. May 25th showcases a Baile de la Era fiesta where traditional regional dances are performed in Estella. June 24th poses to be a most revered month of fiesta with the San Juan pilgrimage fiesta happening in Yanci. The participating pilgrims wash themselves in the spring waters at a cave. This act purportedly cures those with ailments.

July fiestas begin on its thirteenth day where the las tres Vacas fiesta is celebrated in the Roncal valley. An ancient agreement since 1375 obligates the French Baretous valley inhabitants to settle a yearly tribute of 3 cows to Piedra San Martiñ-n inhabitants. This unique ceremony is undertaken by the respective town mayors who are donned in full medieval gowns to commemorate the old contract. The surrounding villages in Pamplona hold fast to their traditions and cultures through the Tudela fiesta which is celebrated between July 24th and July 28th. The first Saturday in the month of August brings on the festival of Estella with the Tafalla fiesta starting from August 15th and lasts 5 days. The Sanguesa fiesta comes on between 11th and 17th of September.
