Article published on March 6th 2012 | Travel

If you are looking for a London hotel in the central part of town, the 4 star London Bridge Hotel is ideally located in Southwark. From the hotel you are just a few minutes away from the Underground Station which connects you to the London City Airport. If you cross the London Bridge, which is just opposite to the hotel, you can get to the other side of the city. Southwark bristles with activity and there is a lot to see and do around this area.

Book a hotel in London that has a vantage point as you can then decide to take a bus tour or a planned tour and visit some of the historical sites of London. There are many museums, parks, theatres, galleries and large buildings such as the Shard that you can visit and admire the architectural design. This London hotel has 138 rooms, all of which are air-conditioned. Internet access is possible as they provide free Wi-Fi. The rooms are equipped with a mini bar, coffee maker, LCD TV, DVD player and they offer you the choice of Duvet pillows for your comfort. Parents can make use of the Double Standard Room if their child under 12 years of age, is accompanying them, free of charge. The rooms available are Deluxe, Executive and Suite. They even have six rooms specially reserved for disabled guests.

In-dining is permitted and you have 24 hour room service when you book a hotel in London such as the London Bridge Hotel. It has been rated 4 stars and the management is committed to honouring the environmental policies and every attempt is made to conserve energy, recycle waste and reduce water consumption. There is a 400 year old history associated with this hotel. There have been archaeological findings when the hotel was being built years ago and these are now exhibited in the London Museum.

The Londinium is well known for its fine dining and perfect ambiance. There is a Fitness Centre in the hotel that guests can make use of as a complimentary gesture by the hotel. If you decide to book an Apartment for a group of six, you can enjoy cooking your own food, as the flat rental has a fully equipped kitchen. Have fun, by strolling down to the Boroughs Market and picking up some delectable™s, which you can dish up and enjoy a cosy meal. The Apartment also has a large living and dining with two bedrooms.

The London Bridge Hotel can be approached from the airport, by rail, underground, car or the River. The nearest buildings that you can visit are the Globe, Tate Modern and the Shard, which is touted to be the largest building in the European Union. Enjoy an evening at the Theatre or you can visit some Pubs in the Area in the evening. You will be spoilt for choices when you visit London as there is too much to see and do in this beautiful city.
