Have the Time of Your Life with Kruger Flexi Tours by Stan Scott

Article published on January 10th 2012 | Travel

Whether you are one of a small team of Nelspruit backpackers or a casual holidaymaker visiting the region with your family, your trip will remain rather incomplete without a visit to the famed Kruger National Park located not far away from Nelspruit. The Park is one of the most celebrated wildlife destinations in Africa and is well-known for the many thrilling sights and sounds that it offers.

A great way to enjoy them all is by signing up for Kruger Park safaris of which there are plenty. There is no dearth of accommodation facilities in the area that is home to many hotels and resorts. Most of them have their in-house facilities to arrange for safaris. A popular kind of safari available with many such establishments is what is known as a flexi tour. Flexi tours, as the name itself suggests, gives you a lot of flexibility in choosing what you wish to see and what you don't.

The National Park is a vast area and is always advisable to make some kind of selection about which parts you wish to visit because it is usually impractical to try to see everything. Flexi tours are a great option in this regard, letting you pick from a wide range of thoughtful variants of the conventional safari program.

For example, a reputed organizer of such tours offers 4 major variants:

The Leopard Crawl Tour; a two days, one night tour including game spotting in the company of experienced rangers, visits to the Small Drakensberg mountain range, Lisbon Falls, Bourke's Luck Potholes and the unforgettable Blyde Canyon.

The Elephant Trumpets Tour; a three days, two nights tour covering Kruger and Blyde, including game spotting in Kruger and sightseeing in God's Window, Lisbon Falls, Bourkes Luck Potholes, the Blyde Canyon, finishing off with delicious pancakes from a popular local eatery.

The Lion King Tour; a three days, two nights tour that includes a private reserve lodge and promises the best combination of luxury and wildlife tourism.

The 3 Countries in 8 Days Tour; an 8 day extravaganza with trips to Swaziland, Maputo in Mozambique, the coastal town of Bilene, Kruger National Park and more.

So, what are you waiting for? Book your tour today and start packing your bags.
