It is time to make your reservations from a variety of the quality hotels in Sussex, to spend your holiday in the South of England. With its wide range of attractions and events all throughout the year, you enjoy the beautiful landscape of the Sussex countryside. You can also visit many of its historic and popular towns including Hastings, Rye and Brighton.

The Perfect Time of Year

While spring and summer are often thought to be the best times to visit Sussex, late autumn and winter months are perfect times to check out the historical period country's houses, and many of its castles. Numerous locales offer seasonal events and workshops to make your holiday even more enjoyable.

The Amazing Countryside

If what you are into is the wonderful splendor of the Sussex countryside, then you need to visit the Rye Country Market located in the beautiful coastal town of Rye. As is typical country market, you will be able to choose from a wide selection of locally grown produce and goods. Finding everything from fresh flowers, homemade jams and cakes, locally grown produce, antiques and local crafts, there is something for everyone. And best of all, the admission is free.

The Music in Me

If you are looking to feel the music, get up and dance, and shake your thing, you will enjoy a wonderful weekend in the south of England, partaking in the Jazz and Acoustical Music Weekend. It is located at Crowhurst Part in East Sussex, and takes place near the end of November. This amazing musical weekend will entertain you with its friendly informal style performances that are held in intimate venue areas. It is a great way for the bands to connect directly with the audience, so everyone can interact with the music.

The English Wine Industry

The English wine industry is thriving well into the 21st century. English wine has matured from its historical beginnings, all the way back from when the Roman Empire made its presence known in ancient Britain. Through improved technology, the vineyards have raised the bar on winemaking in England. You will find a suitable wine selection for sale from the vineyards, which are sure to warm and delight your palate.

The Medieval Coastline

Just a short walk from the town of Rye, you will witness the spectacular coastline that stretches from Dungeness to Fairlight. With their picturesque dunes, the Beaches that stretch down the coastline will astonish you and take your breath away. There you will find its untouched natural beauty, along with a place to moor your small boats. With all the facilities, restaurants and attractions in the harbors you will find wonderful shopping, delightful pubs along with a constant supply of the fresh catch of the day, at the local fish markets.
