There has rarely been a city as diverse yet as unique as Kolkata. Known to the world as the "City of joy", Kolkata is better described as the city of contrasts. This city, which was once the strongest foothold of the British rule in India, offers variety in every sector that one can possibly think of. Dotted with churches and temples, schools and universities, offices and parks; this city offers a wonderful collage of sights. It is often regarded to be the cultural capital of India. And rightfully so! Kolkata is the birthplace of many of the nations noted dancers, singers, painters and poets. After all, this is the home town of Noble laureate Rabindranath Tagore.

But what most people often forget to mention is that Kolkata is also a foodie's paradise. The people of this city are true food lovers themselves. Although, their favorite cuisine will, most probably, always be Bengali cuisine, they are never too shy to try out a new dish either. It is because of this reason; Kolkata also has a number of amazing restaurants that are scattered all over the city. Whatever you ask for, be it Indian cuisine or Thai, or be it a Chinese cuisine or Continental Restaurant in Kolkata, this city offers it all!
