How to make your prom special? by Christina Kevin

Article published on July 30th 2012 | Travel

Promenade is no doubt one of the biggest events in student's life especially the high school students. A plenty of expectations and emotions are associated with this special day however senior students stay too much occupied by their studies that they do not spare a chance to get their prom arrangements squared away. The teenagers love to fun around especially on the special events and occasions however it would not be good if you miss getting most out of your special day.

Promenade is a very special night in one's life and many high school students call prom as the only special day during their entire student life therefore preparations for prom begin months before the big day. The students save money in order to make special arrangements. They go for sedan hire services and do many other arrangements. Some of the important things you should not forget to do before your great royal ball are mentioned below:

Get Dressed & Made Up

You must get dressed up in a special way so that you and your partner stand out from the crowd. For guys there is only one option which is to wear a tuxedo with a bowtie. The boys can get the color of their bowtie matched with the gown color of their partner's gown. For girls there are a wide number of options. They can wear gowns of different shapes and colors. The pink and blue colors are most common in proms when it comes to girls. Do not bothered by what others are wearing, wear what suits you and makes you feel comfortable. Even it's not important to stick to a traditional color. You can wear any color for your promenade may it be black, pink, yellow, blue or whatever you like. Don't like wearing a gown? Go for pants! The main concern on prom is to be yourself therefore do all that suits your personality.

Capture the Moments Forever

Prom is going to be your last major event in the entire student life especially when it comes to high school memories therefore you must get these moments captured in your cameras for everlasting memories. You should take a lot of photos and save them on a CD forever. You can begin with the snaps of you, getting ready for prom, riding the car, meeting up with your partner. Reaching the event place and finally dancing all night long under the glitter of colorful lights. In other words you should capture each and every moment which would never come back in life.

Prom Limo Booking

If you are not budget concerned, you can make your prom even more remarkable. Getting a prom limousine hired for your special day for instance a stretch sedan or stretch SUV hire can make it most remarkable event. Riding a stretched limo with your date can make you talk of the town. In a specially designed prom limo, the ride is actually your party. The students also gather funds and mutually hire a stretched limo, a limo van or a party limo bus for arriving and departing from the event arena with style. The concept of hiring limousines at prom started off from the great iconic city of New York. The average of prom limo reservations in NY each year is more than any other city around the globe.
