India is a land of diverse images that is sometimes beyond any ones understanding. It is a vast canvas with every part colored in a distinct way by the varied hues of Mother Earth. The travel agents in India and tour operators in India have made their best efforts to portray the colorful shades of this unique county-India. The India tour packages or the India holiday packages are all set to unravel these unseen shades of the country from the brown Thar Deserts of Rajasthan in the west to lush green mountains of Arunachal Pradesh in the east and from white snow capped mountains of Himalayas in the north to blue sea shores of the south. An experience of travel in India or travel to India through the length and breadth of the country will let the travelers experience tinges of cultural, traditional, religious, regional, geographical and linguistic imprints never seen before.

An expedition to explore the rich and varied facets of India should start off with a tour in Delhi. The capital city is the mirror of the vast canvas of India with all the diverse shades of the country forming the cosmopolitan society of the city. It is a cauldron where diverse elements of Indian culture have been fumed together to form a mixed society.

Among the other region based packages the Kerala tours and Goa tours best depict the colorful features of Indian topography. Kerala is a land of scenic beauty with majestic green natural vegetation lining the states landmass. Kerala tour showcases one of its kind charming backwaters which are a blend of picturesque lakes, shallow lagoons and connecting canals. The Goa tour lets the tourists experience the majestic view of the golden sun setting behind the brown beaches and blue sea. Goa tour packages also encompass the countryside of Goa still left untouched by the influence of urbanization. The Goa packages are thus ideal getaways for a relaxing holiday at the lap of Mother Earth. Goa holiday packages also include visits to colorful festivals, carnivals and cultural heritage attractions with a luxurious ambiance.

Nestled in the city of Agra besides the flowing Yamuna River the Taj Mahal is the epitome of everlasting and eternal love. A Taj Mahal tour lets one witness the majestic white structure built by Mughal emperor Shah Jahan in the memory of his wife Mumtaz. The well planned gardens and water bodies surrounding the monument further add beauty and grandeur to its magnificence. A tour to this majestic white marble monument is also included in the Golden triangle tour (Delhi- Agra- Jaipur). Other tourist destinations worth visiting during this tour are the Agra Fort, Fatehpur Sikri, Itmad-Ud-Daulah's tomb, Mariams Tomb, Tomb of Akbar in Sikandara, Chini-Ka-Roza, Ram Bagh and Mehtab Bagh etc.
