If you are looking for an exotic vacation destination or a luxury holiday, come to India. India is a beautiful, picturesque land which is famous for its rich history and traditional way of living. The cuisines and buildings are influenced by settlers like the Mughal, British, Portuguese and Dutch.

South India Tours

Online websites offer you a range of tours for a maximum of twelve to fifteen days. The kind of tour you choose basically depend on the places you want to visit. If you are looking to relax and unwind, the south India tours are the best way to go. They give you trips to the beach, relaxed evening at the spa and safari in the day and at night. The south India tours also offer the elephant experience where you get to ride an elephant or get to see a traditional dance show. Packages usually include your accommodation, meals, tour of the city, an English speaking guide and evening entertainment. South India is also known for its textiles and fabrics. It is famous for silk. Gold is also very famous in the south of India.

Traveling to North India

If you like the hustle and bustle of busy streets and crowded markets, then north India and Rajasthan travel is ideal. Cities like Delhi, Jaipur and Agra are of historical significance and were once home to the Mughal Empire. They are dotted with historical monuments and buildings that reflect the luxurious lifestyle of the kings of India. A particularly good one is the Rajasthan tour package that includes Jaipur and Udaipur. Rajasthan travel packages are reasonable and give you value for money. Cities like Jaipur are home to the City Palace which is a huge palatial building used by Shah Jahan, once emperor of the Mughal dynasty. The Hawa Mahal is another beautiful structure which has more than nine hundred windows. The Rajasthan tour packages will offer you a chance to visit local market and shop at Agra and Jaipur. They are famous for their glass work on clothes as well as marble. Agra is famous for silks, shawls and leather goods.

Combination tours

By combining two tours, you can see the entire subcontinent of India. By combining a South Indian tour and Rajasthan travel tour, you can visit two big parts of India. However it doesn't stop these, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka and north east India is also beautiful and visually enchanting.
