There is more than one reason why people who are touring India are suggested not to drop Kerala Tours on their visit. Kerala is a complete tourist destination which offers all the types of tourist attractions that one can imagine. From exquisite beaches with Ayurvedic spas to lush green hills, from the tea plantations to the historical monuments, from spice markets to the temples, churches and mosques, there is so much that one visit might prove to be insufficient. Kerala has rightly been named in the list of one of the top ten tourist destinations around the world. It is famously known as "Gods own Country"™.

Kerala has a very good infrastructure for tourism and this has contributed rapid rise in the number of tourists visiting Kerala every year. There are luxury resorts and affordable hotels for all the income groups. The sightseeing and long Kerala tours packages are provided by many agencies around the state and in the whole of India. It is highly suggested that if one wishes to feel Kerala and live a bit of Kerala, never be in a hurry.

The beaches of Kerala are some of the most beautiful in the world which includes the Kovalam beach, Poovar beach, Varkala beach, Cherai Beach, Alappauzha Beach, Fort Kochi beach. There are a variety of water sport and adventure activities that one can enjoy at these beaches and beach resorts like Para Sailing, Catamaran, Snorkeling, and Wind surfing and angling. Kerala Travel packages will include some of the adventure sport activities if they are requested to do so.

Besides these beaches, there are some great backwater destinations in Kerala too. Combined with the peaceful villages, lush green outfields and attractive scenery, the Kerala backwaters are equally beautiful to the beaches. Allepey, Kumarakom, Kovalam, Kollam and Kottayam are some of the favourite backwater destinations. Cruising facilities to enjoy the scenery of the places with peace and patience are available in many packages.

If this is just the beginning, the tour continues with the hill stations of Kerala. Kerala is dotted with a number of historical monuments that seem to maintain continuity with the lifestyle and culture of the local Keralite people. The hill stations have wonderful tea plantations, some of them so vast that they seem to be an endless stretch of green blanket.

All this is matched with regular cultural programs as the people of Kerala love their culture. Dances, ceremonies, cuisine and Ayurvedic massages add the perfect spice to the Kerala tour.
