KLM Royal Dutch Airlines is the national carrier of the Netherlands commonly called as just KLM Airlines. Headquartered in Amstelveen, Amsterdam, its main hub is at Amsterdam Airport Schiphol that offers its flight service for 90 destinations around the world. If you want to be the part of some of the famous destinations covered by KLM Airlines, you need to get KLM Airlines booking that could be done either from the official website or any of the travel portals. Established in 1919, KLM is the oldest airline in the world that still operates with its original name. If you are considering Gulf Air tickets to fly to certain destinations of the world then this choice is also worth as we can see what all it has to offer to its passengers.

Gulf Air is one of the oldest carriers of the Middle East and also the national airline of the Kingdom of Bahrain. Gulf Air is one of the major flyers in the world with loads of experience in flying till date. One could fly to over 45 destinations across 28 countries with Gulf Air tickets. Then there is KLM we are talking about that has been serving from Europe for quite a time. As it is known for offering reliable service, on-time performance and state-of-the-art passenger amenities, one could hardly regret the decision of choosing to fly with KLM Airlines booking among others.

Founded on October 7, 1919, KLM is one of the oldest carriers of the world that is still functioning with its same name it carried during its inception. KLM merged with Air France making Air France-KLM Group but operating with old names. Become a part of it by KLM Airline booking and see if it makes any difference. Gulf Air started in the 1940's as an air taxi service to Doha and Dhahran from Bahrain but was later expanded to a private share holding company under Gulf Aviation. Get Gulf Air tickets and experience their way.

KLM Airlines has to offer passenger and cargo flight services that cover over 90 destinations across the world. Over all it covers around 125 destinations worldwide. Currently, you can fly with KLM Airlines booking in any of the 114 aircraft KLM Airline fleet has. KLM fleet contains aircraft from Airbus, Boeing and McDonnell Douglas MD-11 families. If we consider Gulf Air, its Golden Falcon has created trust in its passengers by its services. Headquarters in Muharraq, Gulf Air has extraordinary fleet of 34 with aircrafts in which you could fly with Gulf Air tickets in hand and enjoy a nice air ride.
