Malaysia Tourism invite people around the world with its popular tagline, "Malaysia, Truly Asia" features, the Cameron Highlands, Georgetown in Penang Island, Taman Negara (a tropical Rain forest), Mount Kinabalu (highest mountain in Borneo), Tioman and many such amazing tourist attractions. Time Magazine considered Tioman as one of the world's most beautiful islands. Malaysia tourism also has Malaysia's best-known holiday destination is Langkawi. It is an archipelago of 99 islands in the Andaman Sea. A part of the state of Kedah, adjacent to the Thai border, It is a welcoming tourist site. One can also find buildings of interests like the Petronas Twin Towers in Kuala Lumpur.

Also, there are the Perhentian Islands, a part of Malaysian tourism focuses on people who like to explore in less monetary involvement. For animals and nature lover, Sepilok Orang Utan Rehabilitation can pick their interest to rescued orphaned baby orangutans from activities that are causing their extinction. They are trained here to survive in the wild. Located within the Kabil-Sepilok Forest Reserve, people like it a lot.

Travel enthusiasts also like the Mulu Caves that are also a part of Malaysia tourism. They are located in the Gunung Mulu National Park in Malaysian Borneo. The park encompasses incredible caves and karsts formations in a mountainous equatorial rainforest setting.

On the other hand, Phuket is a small part of Thailand basically an island with many others surrounding it. It have always considered as the destination to rest and relax with Phuket tour also offering golfing as a holiday pass-time. Coral reef with shimmering blue of Indian Ocean sets it aside as different from other islands that are standing in the same queue. Phuket Eco Tours in Khao Sok and Khao Lak offer adventure apart from water activities for thrill at the same time taking relaxing interest in Phuket tour. Adding to this list of fun is Elephant trekking that meant to provide an indulgence with nature.

Phuket is not known as pearl of South Asia only in words. It is an island of Thailand and simply a heaven on Earth with its unbound scenic beauty. Water sports like Snorkeling and scuba diving and exploring the islands on kayak or cruises above alluring coral reefs can bring you very from your work in the world of fun and excitement. Phuket tour can make your dream holidays unbelievably true. Extensive travel packages are like icing on the cake making the trip more enjoyable!

So now decision rests on you for whether you would opt for Malaysia Tourism for extensive exploration of a country or instead take a Puhket tour for time efficiency.
