It is within easy access of all London's shopping districts such as Knightsbridge and Oxford Street where you will have the chance to bask in the capital's most iconic department stores including Selfridges and Liberty.

One 4 star hotel Hyde Park that is worthy of a mention and an enjoyable stay is the Metropolis Hyde Park. This venue offers nothing but the best customer service and attention to detail when it comes to focusing on their guests. There are a number of services that guests can take advantage of when staying here including a number of restaurants offering fine cuisine, a fitness and wellness room, swimming pool where you can work it all off after your meal and access to the lounge and club rooms.

This will provide you with the opportunity to relax and rejuvenate yourself. There is also a splendid selection of afternoon tea treats to be enjoyed at this hotel. Sit down and enjoy the plush surroundings while taking in the splendour of the quintessentially British pastime.

Other important features that will ensure your stay will run smoothly feature a 24-hour front help desk, a range of concierge services, complimentary Internet and 24 hour room service in case you get hunger pangs! Modern contemporary rooms meets luxurious surroundings and a host of warm greetings on arrival that will ensure you will have a comfortable stay, whether you are residing at this 4 star hotel hyde park for one day or one week. For those guests that are travelling on business or corporate stays then a 4 star hotel marble arch venue is the ideal location in which to stay. You will be close to all the major transport links and less than 15 minutes away from the heart of Central London.

One such 4 star hotel marble arch that you could consider when on business is the Marriott Hotel Marble Arch. This hotel boasts an impressive central London location and is close to the numerous sites of Oxford Street, Hyde Park, West End Theatres and some of the capital's best Michelin starred restaurants. Enjoy the premium health and spa facilities as well as unwinding in one of the relaxing bars over a drink. There is a wealth of conference facilities including the 264 square meter conference and meeting facilities that will ensure your function or meeting is organised with consummate ease.

In addition, you will be able to enjoy all of what London has to offer with its close proximity to such prestigious boroughs such as Kensington and Chelsea, home to the glitterati and some of the most incredible shopping experiences the capital has to offer. Rest assured you will be in safe hands at this hotel thanks to their outstanding customer service and comfortable surroundings.
