

Article Side

Nainital Tours the City of Lakes by Rajive

Article published on July 6th 2012 | Travel

Dotted with British style cottages, villas and bungalows, situated at an elevation of 1,983 meters above the sea level, Nainital is one of the most sought after hill stations in India. Often referred as the "Lake city" it is located in Uttarakhand the famous North Indian state. The hill station is a glittering jewel in the Himalayan necklace which is blessed with some of the most beautiful scenic natural splendors and varied natural resources. Once loved by the Britishers, it is an ideal summer destination that attracts people from all spheres of life. There is small temple dedicated to the goddess Naina Devi after whom the lake and the town got its name. The captivating charm of Nainital lies in its lush green landscapes, snow covered mountains, salubrious climate, several adventurous activities, illuminating lakes which makes it among the most popular hill stations of India.

Nainital Tours offer its guests a golden opportunity to explore its local markets, best scenic spots, try out its delicious delicacies and indulge in various thrilling adventurous activities. Naini Lake forms the core of the small hilly town and is the nucleus of Nainital exquisite beauty. In the day, the lake mirrored in its waters the seven proud hills, dotted with pretty cottages and villas. The reflections of which is so spectacular that it holds its visitors spell bound. While during the nights the lake is illuminated with myriads of bulbs hanging near the lakes edge stab their magic light into its water make it one of the most beautiful places of the hilly town. It offers visitors various exciting options like boating or paddling a boat yachting etc to feel relaxed and rejuvenated. The north end of lake is called Mallital while the southern one is called Tallital which are connected with Mall Road and offer its guests an opportunity to buy souvenirs for their near and dear ones in the form of candles, wooden and metallic artifacts etc.

Other places that the visitor must see on their sightseeing tours to Nainital are St John's Church, Snow View, Hanumangarh, Cave Garden, Raj Bhawan, Tiffin Top etc. Nainital is a perfect destination for those who want to add little spice to their daily mundane routines. The hill station is blessed with some of the best treks that offer some of the panoramic vistas of snow covered mountains. Aerial ropeway and horse riding are quite popular among the visitors and offer them an opportunity to enjoy thrills and excitement of these adventurous activities. Every year, the hill resort witnesses a huge influx of tourists from all corners of India to beat the heat and witness its splendors. So the hilly town of Nainital boasts various luxurious, deluxe, semi-deluxe and standard hotels for comfortable accommodation of its guests. Summer months between March to July is the best season to visit this pristinely beautiful hill station. The winter months are often preferred by visitors who want to witness the snow fall and indulge in winter sports.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/nainital-tours-the-city-of-lakes.htm> - Article Side

Rajive - About Author:

Plan a tour to the Hill Stations in North India offers a Nainital tours the healing prowess and offers a rejuvenating experience to the tiring souls.

Article Keywords:

Hill stations India, tour packages to hill Station North india, hill stations North India, travel to hill stations North India

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!