So you have to organize a corporate lunch for your company; a meeting and want to do something special. Most employees love corporate lunches as they (depending on who is involved) get a chance to mingle and make connections with others in the same company and promotes team-building especially when they are contained in one space.

But the common picture that most employees have about a company meeting is probably a grand hotel which simply does not help lighten up the mood of those involved. A company meeting can always be spruced up when employees are looking forward to having a good time both at and post the meeting. This not only boosts the morale of those who will be attending the event but also gets them excited about lays ahead and how they can make an impression at the event giving them a chance to get noticed.

A Dhow cruise in Dubai can make for the perfect yet exciting venue for a company lunch, corporate meeting or even a conference. Dubai dhow cruises offer a lot in terms of venue; they may look simple from the outside but they are well-built and have all the latest amenities on the inside. Moreover, it will definitely give your employees or perspective clients of how you as an organizer/businessman can think out of the box. A lunch aboard a floating vessel in the Dubai Creek or the Dubai Marina can surely turn heads in any line of business. The atmosphere of being in the sea also lightens up the mood leading to better deals and more connections being made compared to the interiors of drab and boring conference room or hall.

A dinner cruise provider will assure you that every guest will be attended to and that you in the midst of your dealing will never be disturbed as our courteous and polite staff know are trained to judge when you are busy or occupied. Their skilful organizers and staff are also capable and have catered to many corporate lunches and grand events in the past so they will assure you that you will not be disappointed when it comes to the quality of food and the professional quality services that they offer. What they also offer along with a lunch, is a Dubai sightseeing tour and a panoramic view of Dubai City post-lunch to keep your clients entertained. When it comes to food they offer nothing but the best in a wide variety of cuisines depending on your selection aboard the dhow Dubai cruise. All you need to do is let them know what you would like to experience in terms of international cuisine and the spread will be arranged.
