India as a holiday destination is fast gaining ground. Recently, Conde Naste Readersâ€™™ Travel awards were announced and India was voted 7th best holiday destination in the world for its warmth and hospitality. Also, three Indian hotel properties namely, Leela Palace Kempinski, Bangalore; Taj West End, again in Bangalore and The Oberoi, New Delhi appeared in the list of top 10 â€œOverseas Business Hotelsâ€™™. More and more people are now planning vacation in India.

Significant growth in the arrival of inbound tourists and the movement of domestic tourists has been registered in the past few years, except for a short period of lull that occurred on account of economic recession and terrorist attack on the top grade Mumbai hotels â€œ The Taj and The Oberoi. But the situation has improved and the Indian tourism industry is ready to welcome travelers with same zeal and enthusiasm.
