There are various leagues of cars that can be rented, a car for enjoyment, a car for work, a car with a driver or representative, a luxurious car, a car for a date, a wedding or a honeymoon, for business or for a vacation, cars by models, foreign cars and even most popular cars. No matter what your purpose to rent a car is, there is always a car for you.

One can choose a business class car or a tough working car or even a latest model car. There are some important guidelines for Rental Cars Houston Texas and these can help in deciding the right renting option. One can rent a car in standard conditions or hire a car with a representative or driver.

A car in standard condition is generally a new model which is clean, presentable with good interiors and a fueled tank. These cars are best for both short and long distances journeys and are the hard working cars. They do not come with a driver and cost less than cars with drivers. Person renting will have part of its ownership while under the rent agreement.

The other type of rental cars is auto hire with a representative or a driver. These kinds of car rentals are ideal for people who cannot drive or people who are new to the place. Just let the driver know the address you need to go to and you will be there without asking directions. Rental cars with drivers are great to deliver guest to any preferred destination.

Depending on the budget one can even rent a luxurious Lamborghini, Murcielago, Roadster, a Rolls Royce Phantom, a Chevy Cavalier, a Corvette, a Ford Mustang or a Lincoln Town Car. These cars have a higher rental value and come with higher basic fees, add-on charges and even late penalties.
