A Lover of art and history? You must have visited Europe earlier but distant Russia has always been a dream destination. So book a ticket online today and land up at St. Petersburg. A 400 year old legacy, elegant structures, art museums, palace courtyards and more will make your holiday memorable.

The Hermitage, one of the oldest art museums in Russia is the major draw for tourists. You can witness various artifacts from the Stone Age till the present day. Walking along the streets of St. Petersburg is also an experience in itself. The Palace square, the Bronze Horseman statue of Tsar Peter the Great, the century old cathedrals are all within walking distance of many luxury hotels.

Globally acclaimed Saint-Petersburg hotels await your presence to pamper you with its bouquet of luxury accommodation and a wide array of delicacies to gorge on from around the world. The Hotels will also make arrangement for a river cruise aboard the river trams, local sightseeing, shopping options and restaurants. River trams will surely make your trip memorable. It resembles the canal cruise at Venice. You can have a glimpse of the cultural symbols of the city staying afloat.

While you are busy admiring the city's glorious past, do not miss the cafes in every nook and corner for a quick bite. You can also check out the bars for a drink or two. Soak in the festive mood in the various occasions held at many heritage sites throughout the city. Nightlife is very vibrant at St Petersburg. Most of the bars, pubs and nightclubs are open throughout the night. Being a cultural centre, you can always catch up a live orchestra, a play or other live performances. All these make the ambience really enchanting.

With more than 221 museums, 2000 libraries and more than 80 theaters across the length and breadth of the city, St. Petersburg not offers mere sightseeing but also a lot of things to do for the tourist. An excellent infrastructure ensures that you enjoy the most during your stay. Easy connectivity through buses, trams, underground railway and water taxis makes this city very convenient for any visitor.

Many of the St. Petersburg hotels offer fabulous packages for the religious traveler. The city is dotted with many old cathedrals- The Cathedral of SS Peter and Paul, St. Isaac's Cathedral, Trinity Cathedral among the most prominent. Peter and Paul cathedral speaks a lot of Russian legacy. Huge graveyards in the premises house the graves of the Romanov rulers. Another colossus religious address is the St. Isaac's, where almost 14000 worshippers can offer their prayers.

The city boasts an impressive green cover- over 200 parks makes it one of the greenest city in Europe. The Botanical Garden with its huge collection of flora and fauna from around the world. A lot of bamboo, ferns and orchids from Asia add to its greenery. It is a centre of horticultural research and is the oldest botanical garden of Russia. Perhaps one of the oldest parks in the city, The Summer Garden houses a large collection of sculptures from 17th and 18th centuries, a wide collection of garden statues and some rare flora and fauna. Exhausted seeing most of the sights in the city, well now you can just stroll and relax in the Kirov Central Culture and Leisure Park. A palace in the vicinity, relaxing in the picturesque alleys, a boat trip in the lake, and rides for the children attracts a huge number of tourists and locals.
