

Article Side

Tahiti Travel Connection unveils new website by Kenn

Article published on January 17th 2012 | Travel

Tahiti Travel Connection, a preferred partner to Tahiti Tourisme and Australia's leading travel specialist to Tahiti, has been helping travellers plan their dream holidays since 2006.

The launch of this new website is great news for travellers, with a range of innovative features designed to save them time and money when researching and planning their holiday.

Key features of the website include:

- NEW "sorting" functions which allow travellers to sift by price, duration, island, package name, name and star rating

- NEW packages with travel dates up to March 2013

- PDF download pages for each package, so travellers can easily print details of packages

- Ability to share packages and information on social media sites such as Facebook and Twitter

- packages jam-packed with added value items

- a NEW "package highlights" feature, which allows quick comparison between packages and makes it easier and quicker for travellers to find packages that suit their needs

- latest resort information regarding facilities and room types, complemented by high quality images and short videos.

The new website also presents expanded travel tips and destination information covering a wider range of French Polynesian islands.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/tahiti-travel-connection-unveils-new-website.htm> - Article Side

Kenn - About Author:

Article Keywords:

Tahiti Travel, Travel Agents, Cruise Agency, French Polynesia, French Travel Connection