Article published on July 6th 2012 | Travel

Located in the ceremonial and royal county of Berkshire, Reading is a town with national importance and value. It is a visiting place for majority of the tourists visiting the English Berkshire County which is called Royal County due to Windsor Castle being present there. The Windsor Castle has been and is still the visiting place for Queen Elizabeth II and was visited by the royal family in the past as well. If you have decided to visit the great town of Reading this summer, then you are guaranteed to have a visit full of memorable and everlasting fun. There is a wide number of travel and tourism companies that offer special travel packages along with cheap car hire service in Reading. Getting your car hired at economical rates in Reading requires a fair amount of research and you need to look around the town for best offers.

The popular town has wonderful places to offer to its visitors. The Museum of Reading is a great place for those people who are interested in knowing about international cultures, traditions and history. The museum is located in the same building as of the Reading Town Hall. It features galleries which give a brief introduction about the town of Reading and its history. The museum is divided into different galleries that are categorized according to type of paintings and arts they contain. It is absolutely free to visit the Museum of Reading for all and the opening timings for the museum are 10:00 to 16:00 from Tuesdays to Saturdays and 11:00 to 16:00 on Sundays. The museum remained closed during Mondays. Getting to the museum requires you to look for taxi hire service in Reading. The taxis are available at convenient rates all over the town.

Aside from the Reading Museum, another highly popular place in the town of Reading is the Beale Wildlife Park and Gardens. It is located by the River Thames between Pangbourne and Lower Basildon which are the neighboring villages. The park is divided into five main areas. There is a collection of small amazing animals, farm birds and animals, lush green grassy gardens and kids' recreational areas. The Beale park was founded by Gilbert Beale in the year 1956. The park has greatly expanded vertically as well as horizontally over the last few years in order to be able to attract all kinds of tourists regardless of age, gender and profession. There is also a beautiful Beale Railway in the park which is highly appreciated and admired by kids however the elders also love to ride it. Reading car hire is the best option for getting around the town especially to the places of interest.
