Article published on March 20th 2012 | Travel

Planning on that big vacation to India? Why not take a tour to the north or southern areas of India. Rajasthan in the north and Kerala in the south are beautiful destinations to travel to. This of course depends on your interests. Kerala is picturesque calm and serene while the state of Rajasthan is home to exquisite culture and history of India. Rajasthan tour packages will include visiting the various cities in Rajasthan and experiencing the life of the state. Similarly the Kerala tour packages will include sightseeing and visits to the coastal beaches of Kerala.

Touring Rajasthan

When you are looking for packages and reasonable deals, try shopping online and find the perfect package deal. Rajasthan tours usually include shopping and visits to local markets, display of dances or an opportunity to go for a camel ride. Your accommodation and meals usually fall within the package. Before you book the package take a close look at the accommodation being provided and the discounts you can avail of. Some agencies provide discounts depending on the size of your booking and number of people as well as the date of booking. For Rajasthan tours it's always best to book 8 - 10 months in advance. This way you can ensure that you will be vacationing in the mysterious land of India.

Kerala tours

Kerala landscape is a blend of mountains and the sea. It is the perfect place to vacation at. Beside it being breathtakingly gorgeous, it is home to some of the oldest temples and monuments in India. Due to the influence of various settlers like the Dutch and the British, Kerala boasts of unique architecture and cuisines. Kerala tour packages usually include a trip to Cochin, the epicentre of Kerala is well connected by both internationally and domestically. It is made famous by the fort of Kochi. Cochin also boasts of old churches and synagogues. These are unique buildings that stand till today. A good destination near the sea would be Kannur. It is a majestic destination for sea lovers. Situated on the coast, it has a good number of guest houses and areas for local shopping.
