The country of India has been a cauldron of diverse cultural, traditional, religious, regional, geographical and linguistic varieties. An experience of travel in India will let you experience a one of its kind experience with every region offering something new to its customers. Settlers from different parts of the world have made this country their homeland for ages. Contributing with their cultural and traditional inputs they have led India to gain a multiple cultural system. Also being a secular country many religions are followed by its people, the most prominent being Hinduism, Islam, Christianity, Sikhism, Buddhism, Jainism etc. The whole territory of India is also divided into many states and union territories with every region having its own tourism potential. Diverse geographical features ranging from snow capped mountain peaks to sea shores, dry deserts to lush green forests exist here. Also over one thousand mother tongues exist in this country. So, Travel to India through the length and breadth of the country is worth its money.

The India holiday packages that are offered by the travel agents fully cover all the diverse elements of the country. They are theme based or region based and includes state tours, medicinal tours, adventure tours, historical tours, luxury train tours, religious tours, luxury tours, wildlife tours, honeymoon tours, Bollywood tours, festival special tours, tea tour, classic India tour, exhibition and fair tours etc. The tour operators in India in order to make the travel experience of their clients comfortable and hassle free offer added facilities such as Car hire, travel insurance, pick up and drop facility at the airport, expert guide availability and well prepared tour itinerary etc.

A visitor should start off his vacations in India with a tour in Delhi. Delhi being the capital city of India aptly portrays the rich cultural heritage of the country. Consisting of many historical structures, market places, memorials, landmarks, shopping malls, eateries etc the city gives the tourists the feel and taste of India at one go. The travel agents in Delhi fully exploit the tourist destinations that depict the significance of Delhi in the fields of trade, commerce and administration.

Among other travel products available, the Goa tour packages and the Kerala tour packages are the most sought after. A Goa tour offers its visitors with a perfect holiday experience as the golden beaches with its many sports activities, the blue sea with various water sports and cruises and the majestic sun with the option of sunbathing all mixed up are perfect holiday activities. The state of Kerala also fondly called "Gods Own Country"™ provides the tourists with a heavenly holiday experience. The sights of the natural landscapes especially the backwaters are breadth taking with beauty of Mother Nature displayed in full elegance.
