Article published on July 18th 2012 | Travel

India is a magical destination with amazing histories, mind blowing traditions, charming cultures and astounding heritage sites. It not only attracts people from other parts of India but also from the world all over. If you are planning to avail tour packages for India, you would do well by keeping the following twelve points in mind.

Imperative Tips

If you come under the non-national category, always keep your passport, visa with multiple copies at hand. Nationals should carry their identity card or related proof at all times. This is particularly helpful while making reservations or booking train/bus tickets. Always keep your travel documents and cash together in a safe place. If you have multiple bags, it is wise to store some cash in each bag, this way even if you lose a bag on crowded platforms, you won't risk running out of money as well. As a rule of thumb, always travel light and don't befriend strangers. As far as possible, avoid carrying a lot of jewelry and inviting unnecessary attention from pickpockets and thieves that are roaming around train/bus stations. Never travel on your own to dark and lonely places rather walk in groups. If any of your important documents are stolen, promptly lodge an FIR at local police stations. Be sure to refer to your country's embassy so that they can notify and take appropriate action. Take care of your health and diet in a new place. Eat food from popular restaurants with key emphasis on more curds and less spice. It's not safe to drink water from public taps rather buy sealed mineral water bottles.

Sights worth Seeing

The sights at this place include City Palace, Chittorgarh Fort, Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary, Hawa Mahal, Kumbhalgarh Fort, Ranthambhore National Park, Golden Fort, Dilwara Jain Temple, Lake Palace, Ajmer Dargah Sharif, Mehrangarh Fort and more. Goa is the tiniest state and is famous for its sandy beaches, intricately designed churches and memorials.
