Jammu and Kashmir is called as the place of shrines and seers and the tourist has the opportunity to visit some of the shrines of historic eminence in the region. There are religious tourists from the different parts of Indian and world who want to come to the shrine of mata vaishno Devi in the trikuta hills of Jammu and Kashmir. The pilgrim comes to this shrine with the utter dedication and in turn receives the boons from the goddess. He receives peace and prosperity and thinks of coming to this shrine again. Vaishno Devi is one of the main goddess of the Hindu religion and the legend is related to lord Rama. It is also written in the Vedas about this shrine and one cannot deny the high spiritual relevance of this type of pilgrimage. One can reach this pilgrim via Jammu and there is transportation from Jammu. There is an exotic hospitality arrangement at the base camp in Katra for the pilgrims in the form of yatra bhavans and the exotic hotels offering you the luscious vegetarian cuisines only. The pilgrim takes the yatra ticket and ascends the hill travelling a distance of 14 km to the top straight to the cave. The pilgrim finds some wonderful arrangements on the way for the wonderful comfort. He reaches the top of the shrine and then goes inside the cave.

The goddess is located in the cave in the three pindas of three incarnations of the goddess. After the pilgrimage to the cave, the individual has to pay homage to the Bhairavghati and it is only after this, the pilgrimage comes to the complete end as per the instructions of the goddess. The fact of the matter remains that the head of Bhairav on this particular spot and he got salivated. So keeping all this mythology in mind, the person should indeed go to Bhairav temple after visiting the cave otherwise the pilgrimage is considered incomplete. As per the legend of this shrine, Bhairavnath was cruel and he was teasing goddess but the goddess hid in the cave. He reached there and the goddess took the form of Chandi in order to kill him. The fact of the matter remains that Bhairavnath was doing this only to get salivated from the hand of the goddess.

In the present times, the pilgrim gets many modern facilities in the shrine for his wonderful Darshan of the goddess. Vaishno Devi yatra by helicopter is a good option to save the time of the individual. Goddess Vaishno Devi shrine is one of the most famous Hindu pilgrim centers in the country and this shrine is being visited by millions of pilgrims in a single year and holds the supreme relevance for the follower of the Hindu faith. If the person comes here with the utmost faith irrespective of his religion or faith, the merciful goddess will indeed bless the individual. Come for this wonderful pilgrimage for a couple of days and have the wonderful encounter with goddess.
