Visit Kathmandu and Immerse Yourself in Popular Tourist Spots by Robert Connor

Article published on June 23rd 2012 | Travel

Make the most of your vacation this summer in the country of Nepal. It is made up of gorgeous landscapes and is immensely rich in history and culture. How about going on an expedition to its capital? Kathmandu is the capital of Nepal that is full of hustle and bustle and is noisy due to various aspects prevailing in the city. The city of Kathmandu is often regarded as "The Gateway to Nepal" and "Gateway of Mount Everest".

Many grab cheap flights to Kathmandu to experience the vibrancy of the city. It may come as a cliché to you that Kathmandu is the city that is packed with the Temples and nothing else. Many travellers may hold this perception about the city due to the lack of information on various tourist attractions that catch the attention of a plethora of vacationers.

The mountains in Nepal compel the tourists to go for trekking or mountaineering but its capital is a wonderful city that people think of as a great city to have a quality time in. It is home to some of the most acclaimed Buddhist temples in the Asian continent. Visitors will come across plenty of things to do that will keep them engaged right through their journey to the city.

You can pay a visit to the temples such as Swyambhunath temple, Boudhanath Stupa, Pashupatinath and Changunarayan which are regarded as the World Heritage Sites. Thousands of visitors take a flock in the temples to feel their magical charm every year. If you are a peace lover and want to surrender to the beauty of the temples, you should definitely make your way to Swyambhunath and Boudhanath. The temples are loaded with massive prayer wheels and have a unique collection of traditional Buddhist paintings.

When you touch down in the city, you would not want to miss to take a glimpse of dawn which makes you feel that you have stepped in heaven. The feeling that you get when you view at the majestic Mount Everest is really beyond description. Book Kathmandu flights to feel the exciting verve of the city.

Visit Hanuman Dhoka which is a well-known complex in the city. Also known by the name of Durbar Square, it comprises varied palaces, remarkable temples and interesting courtyards. One of the prime attractions that should not be missed at any cost is the Akash Bhairav Temple. It is a three storey temple and has been wonderfully crafted to exert a pull on the tourists.

Admire the nature to its core by exploring parks and gardens when you visit Balaju water garden, which is a gorgeous place with fishponds, sacred shrines and swimming pool to take pleasure in.
