So, what have you decided this season? What's on your mind? You must have thought of taking a trip abroad being a passionate traveller. It's been quite some time now that you have been pondering about taking up a vacation abroad but your work schedule didn't you realize your plan. It is recommended that one should take an excursion if they want to revive their soul. If truth be told, there are so many tourist hotspots on the planet which are worth a visit but Asia is one the continents that exude a magnetic appeal from every corner. How about taking a tour to Sri Lanka? It without a doubt is one of the most striking countries on Earth that are well-known for varied aspects. Colombo is its capital and nothing can deny the fact that it is one of the most visited cities of the world. Many grab flights to Colombo to merge themselves with its beauty.

Colombo is home to everything. What not can you find in the enthralling city of Colombo? You can get your hands on shopping options, cultural attractions, entertainment venues and the list does not end. If shopping is one of your obsessions, you can make your way to the prime malls of the city such as Liberty Plaza, Majestic City and Crescat Boulevard. You can acquire a wide range of shopping goods.

The Sri Lankan capital is the major port of Sri Lanka and is also the commercial and financial center of Sri Lanka. It is a city that is always on the go and provides a wonderful amalgamation of old and the new. The city is an immaculate location to commence your tour as you would be soaked in the lethargic charm of the olden times blended with the exuberance of the modern city.

The city would leave you knocked for six as you touch down at Bandaranaike International Airport in Colombo. There is so much to do and see that would not come to a halt. You may run short of time while capturing the interesting places of interest in Colombo but there is absolutely no dearth of the sightseeing spots. Now, you must have familiarized yourself with the fact why several tourists take flights from LON to CMB.

You can visit the highlights such as National Museum, Mount Lavinia, Slave Island, Galle Face Green, Wolvendaal Church, Bere Lake and many more.

Wait a minute! Let's throw a question at you, shall we? Are you aware of the fact that the historical background of the city dates back to more than 2,000 years? Odds are you may not be well-versed with what's stated above. It indeed is. It would prove to be a treat for all the history lovers to visit the city that has left behind the rich ancient tales waiting to be unveiled.
