Singapore is a place filled with malls, cosmopolitan culture, good food, adventure activities and much more. If you have still not explored this place, it is high time you considered touring this country. You will be mesmerized by its charm.

If you are planning for a foreign holiday and don't exactly know which country to visit, Singapore tour is a good option for you to consider for your holiday. You are sure to feel at ease in the hotels in Singapore, exploring their authentic cuisine, which is a treat in itself on a holiday. Another great option for an international holiday is a tour of Bangkok, a place which is as entertaining, as beautiful and much more affordable when compared to Singapore. To give you a little brief on what your Singapore Tour beholds, read further.

There is a new attraction in Singapore which has been aptly named as the Super Park. It sprawls over one hundred and one hectares houses thousands of rare plants in huge conservatories The Park is widely marked into three parts – Bay South, Bay East and Bay Central connecting the two. This park is located very close to the Marina Bay. The park is going to be operational any time soon.

Apart from this new attraction, there are several other places which you can include in your Singapore Tour itinerary. If you are the sporty type you can have a lot of adventure in water sports, go Carting and so on. You can visit the Sentosa Island, water theme park and beach clubs which offer different water sports. If you are travelling with your children, the Butterfly Park and the Insect Kingdom will be a great visual treat for them. Other places that you can visit are Universal Studios, Art Science Museum, China Town and Arab Street for shopping, Botanical garden, Chinese garden and the unique Singapore zoo. You can stay at one of the many hotels in Singapore and enjoy a comfortable holiday.

If you plan a Bangkok tour, you can enjoy a beautiful and authentic Thai experience, in terms of food as well as the many attractions of the place. The Grand Palace which housed various Kings in the past and now draws people to view its architecture in minute details is a major attraction in Bangkok. Wat Pho Kaew houses the famous Emerald Buddha known as Phra Kaew Morakot. The statue of Buddha here is carved out of a single emerald stone and so, the temple is also called the Temple of the Emerald Buddha. The other famous temples in the city are Wat Arun temple which is dedicated to the Sun God and Wat Pho which is the old city of Bangkok and is renowned for its reclining Buddha.

China Town is a place which you are going to enjoy, despite all the chaos and rush in this place. It houses markets, gold shops and is quite exotic in itself during the festive period. Another unique place is the floating market, which is like shopping in river. You can buy fresh fruits, flowers, vegetables from vendors seated in small boats. Other interesting places which you can visit during your Bangkok tour are Chao Phraya River and waterfalls, Chtuchak weekend market, Khao San Road and many more such places.

So whether you want to visit Singapore or go for a Bangkok tour, your holiday is assured to be exciting with a whole lot of places to visit. Also, a wide variety of hotels in Singapore and Bangkok to choose from make your stay affordable and comfortable.
