Northern India offers ample tourism opportunities to tourists coming from different parts of the world. It offers varied tourism options. Cultural heritage tourism and wildlife tourism are two most popular options for tourism in this region that attract tourists from all over the world. If you want to treasure the mix experience of cultural and natural attractions then you might consider golden triangle tour with Ranthambore National Park.

Golden Triangle and Ranthambore National Park are among most popular tourist attractions in northern India. Golden Triangle is a much sought after travel circuit that covers Delhi, Agra and Jaipur as its destinations. Ranthambore is one of the finest national parks and tiger reserves in the country. Thus exploring these fascinating destinations might fascinate you and give you an experience that can be cherished for lifetime.

Here is a general idea about golden triangle tour with Ranthambore Tiger Reserve. This fascinating trip will cover four major destinations of the region. They are Delhi (the capital city of India), Agra (the City of Taj Mahal in Uttar Pradesh State), Jaipur (the capital & largest city of Rajasthan state and fondly known as the Pink City of India) and Ranthambore National Park – one of the best places in the country to see the royal Bengal tigers in their natural habitats.

Delhi is the first destination of India golden triangle tours. It is home to many magnificent monuments, historical sites, cultural objects and modern architectural structures. Red Fort, Qutub Minar and Humayun's Tomb are three UNESCO World Heritage Sites in the city. India Gate (the national monument of India), Old Fort, Akshardham Temple (the largest Hindu temple complex in the world), Jama Masjid (the largest mosque in the country), Lotus Temple (the most visited monuments in the world) and Connaught Place are major attractions for tourism in the city.

The next destination comes is Agra in Uttar Pradesh state. Agra is internationally famous for Taj Mahal (one of the Seven Wonders of the World), Agra Fort, Fatehpur Sikri and Itmad-Ud-Daulah Tomb. The next destination is Jaipur, the capital and largest city of Rajasthan state. Famed as the Pink City of India, Jaipur is one of the finest planned cities in India. It is famous for magnificent forts and monuments. Major attractions include Jantar Mantar, City Palace Complex, Hawa Mahal, Birla Temple, Albert Hall Museum, Jal Mahal Palace, Jaigarh Fort, Nahargarh Fort and Amber Fort.

The fourth destination of the trip will be Ranthambore National Park. Ranthambore is a famous tiger reserve. Here tigers can be easily spotted even during the day time due to abundance in population. Jeep safari is the way you can enjoy best charm of wildlife viewing at the reserve.

So embark on Delhi Agra Jaipur tours with Ranthambore national park in India; and enjoy the mix experience of cultural and wildlife tourism.
