Since ages immigrants from all over the world have settled in India and its surrounding regions. This has led to India becoming a land of cultural, traditional, religious, regional, geographical and linguistic diversities. An experience of travel in India will let one witness these diverse elements that have contributed to the growth of Indian culture. From the snow peak Himalayas of Kashmir in the north to the meeting place of three oceans - kanyakumari in the south and from the deserts of Rajasthan in the west to the mountains covered with lush green forests of Arunachal Pradesh in the east, every state or region of India has something unique to offer to its visitors. So an experience to Travel in India is worth its money if you travel the length and breadth of the country.

The india holiday packages on offer are as diverse as the country and fully exploit the tourism potential of India. Be it history enthusiasts, art and culture lovers, adventure buffs, beauty admirers or peace seekers, these packages cater to everyone's tastes. The types of packages that are offered by tour operators in India are state tours, medicinal tours, adventure tours, historical tours, luxury train tours, religious tours, luxury tours, wildlife tours, honeymoon tours, Bollywood tours, festival special tours, tea tour, classic India tour, exhibition and fair tours etc. The additional travel perks that they offer to the visitors are Car hire, travel insurance, pick up and drop facility at the airport, expert guide availability and well prepared tour itinerary etc.

Among the state based tours, the Goa tour packages and the Kerala tour packages are most popular. A Goa tour must include the water sports like Skurfing, Jet Ski and Kayaking etc. Also beach sports like beach volley ball are a major tourist attraction. A perfect blend of sun, sand and sea, Goa is the ideal destination where you can spend your time sunbathing or witness the sun setting behind the blue sea and golden beaches. On the other hand in Kerala you can see greenery all around in the beautiful natural locals specially in the majestic back waters. Aptly called "God's own country", Kerala also offers you with medicinal packages which include ayurvedic and spa therapies.

A visitor should also include a tour in Delhi in his India travel plans. Delhi, the capital city of India is as diverse as India. All the diverse characteristics of India can also be found in Delhi. Since ages this city has been the center of trade, commerce and power and this heritage is depicted even today in the various structures, buildings and landmarks dotting the city's territory. The travel agents in Delhi through their packages fully exploit this tourism potential of Delhi as well as other parts of the country.
