Leh is the chief capital district of Ladakh, a rapturously beautiful cold desert located in the northern point of India between the frigid & majestic Himalayas and Karakoram ranges. Being located at such a great height, Ladakh naturally offers a chilly rendezvous with nature at its coldest and glorious best. A holiday in Leh can seriously chill your body, soul and mind and leave you enthralled after a rigorous mundane life of your daily routine. Leh package tour comprises of an amazing mix of pleasant sightseeing, frolicsome sports, daring adventure rides, great food, exotic stays and a cold weather to leave the tourists spellbound.

Some of the great things offered by Leh package tour are enumerated below:

Breath-robbing Adventure: If you have marveled at the sheer bravery of the movie stars leaping from great heights or if you have been amazed at the sheer sight of mountaineers braving the cold wind to conquer the mighty mountains, then here is your once-in-a-lifetime chance to mimic them in a thrilling yet safe manner. Leh holiday packages bring before you some of the most daring adventure sports that you have dreamt of. It's fast and furious!

River rafting is one of the most audacious sports that you can try your hands on. Speeding alongside the mighty Indus River challenging the waves on rafts can give you a real high. Perhaps, no other sport in the world is as riveting as River-Rafting especially for the masses. If you are not bold enough for this one, you can go for mountain cycling & biking that allows you to breeze through the sloping terrains of Ladakh pedaling your way to the breathtaking meadows, moors, valleys and villages. So serene and soothing, it feels like heaven!

A holiday in Leh will also allow you to fulfill your childhood dream of camping out in the hills amidst silent valleys and deep ravines. Trekking is another more popular activity that young & old alike love to engage into. You can learn some rock-climbing and hone your mountaineering skills even if you're an amateur or a first-timer. These experiences will be something worth sharing with your grandchildren decades later!

Leh holiday packages also allow you a peep into the amazing wildlife that is present in this part of the planet. Rare & exotic birds and wild cats including the famous snow leopard will greet you with their chirps and roars. And with the misty lakes, the gushing streams, the smoky waterfalls, the riotous fairs, the Buddhist monasteries and the local markets, your holiday in Leh is going to be a really memorable sojourn!
