

Article Side

Red level at the Gran Meliá Golf Resort by Simon C Parker

Article published on March 5th 2012 | Travel Tips

When in Puerto Rico, you can always continue with your sessions of golf if you decide to go with the Gran Meliá Puerto Rico as your choice of accommodation. This resort is situated just half hour away from Luis Muñoz Marín International Airport and is snugly nestled in the Coco Beach in Río Grande. It is bang opposite Trump International Golf Club and around 30 minutes away from Luis Muñoz Marín International Airport.

There are levels to staying at the Gran Meliá in terms of amenities and service you receive. The Royal Service is the top most and provides you with everything that you need in an exclusive environment. The resort has on call all through the day and week a pharmacy as well as medical staff. One can also organize a range of excursions with the help of the hotel staff. And of course for those who want to play a good round of golf, the two 18-hole championship courses located at the Trump International Golf Club are simply spectacular. As a guest at Gran Meliá you will be entitled to special green fees, tee times as well as some private classes and club storage. You will find that there are 10 more courses that can be accessed within a 30 miles radius.

The place has ample parking place and the staff is very well versed in looking after their guests. The place may need a little looking after in terms of its landscaping. The rooms are very well kept and though you may want an HD TV in your room, you will have make do with analog TVs do the job.

If you can afford to, it would be best to opt for Red Level service here. You get the presidential suite and your own cabana bed and private pool. It even comes with a guest room if you so want to use it. The suite also has its own set of butlers who will wait on you hand and foot. They are extremely punctual with all the requests that are made of them. You could also request for a hammock to be placed around your villa between the palm trees that are there.

The best part about this place is that it is completely in keeping with the laidback attitude that is present all around Puerto Rico. When you stay here it would be best to hire a car to take you around, as you are placed a little away in the island.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/red-level-at-the-gran-melia-golf-resort.htm> - Article Side

Simon C Parker - About Author:

Do you ever want to visit beautiful and enjoy vacations in best a Puerto Rico hotels? Just go online and check out the lalest a Puerto Rico resorts packages, Hotels and flights on our website. Travel and see unforgettable view of a puerto rico beaches and make it most memorable vacations.

Article Keywords:

Puerto Rico hotels, Puerto Rico resorts, puerto rico