During India Tours one can easily experience difference in language, culture and traditions just after 200-300 miles. This beautiful has everything for travelers, there are beautiful beaches in southern states where you can lie down and enjoy sun bathing, in northern India there are amazing hill stations with mountains full of snow, which are perfect holiday destinations in the summer season. Beautiful palaces, grand forts and heritage monuments are just amazing in the different cities of north India such as Delhi, Jaipur and Agra. If you are a nature and wildlife lover India won't disappoint you, there are so many wildlife sanctuaries and national parks all over India, some of the most famous are Kaziranga in Assam, Corbett in Uttarakhand and Ranthambore in Rajasthan. If you are an adventure loving person, go to Himalayan hills and enjoy mountaineering and trekking.

Let me tell you about some beautiful places that should be considered visiting while taking Tours to India.

Rajasthan is one of the most visited states by local and foreign tourists in India. The state is famous for its majestic hotels and palaces, beautiful lakes, heritage monuments and forts. It is also known for courageous kings and queens. Cities in the Rajasthan state are generally well planned and that is why they charm everyone. Jaipur is the capital of the state, also famous as pink city. Famous tourist places in the city are Jal Mahal, Jantar Mantar, Amber Fort and City Palace. If someone wants to see royal grandeur of the state they must visit Udaipur and Jodhpur and visit Mehrangarh Fort and Ummaid Bhawan Palace in the respective cities. And if one desire to have religious and spiritual experiences than Pushkar, Mehndipur and Ajmer are must visit cities. Must include Rajasthan holidays in your India tour itinerary, it is amazing to be here.

Another destination you must include in your India tour itinerary is Kerala, and it is full of natural beauty. If you want to explore Kerala, its beautiful beaches with coconut trees, its culture and traditions then you must visit Kerala villages. Don't forget to take boat ride, it is a once in a lifetime experience.

Another city you must go on tours to India is Agra and experience mesmerizing Taj Mahal. Every year over 3 million tourists come to take Agra tours to experience beauty and love of this place. It was made on the instructions of Mughal emperor Shah Jahan in loving memory of his third wife; it took around twenty two years to complete the construction work of this marvelous monument of eternal love. Agra Fort and Fatehpur Sikri are other two prominent places to visit in the city.

There are so many places to visit in India and no one can compile all of them in one article. So learn more about India on Internet before taking Tours to India. I hope you will enjoy India trip as much as millions do every year.
