Article published on March 17th 2012 | Vacations

Spain is a perfect destination for beach holiday lovers as nature has endowed this country with four thousand kilometers coastal area both with Mediterranean Sea and with the Atlantic Ocean. Spain is also famous among tourists for the best quality of its beaches and resorts and most of the beaches in Spain are continuously winning the award of blue flag from European Union. In the year 2011, Spain was awarded with 511 awards of blue flag which is the highest number given to any country and this really boosted the tourism of the country.

Following are some of the best beaches in Spain:

Playa de las Americas- Tenerife:

This beach with a beautiful resort is located between Adeje and Arona in the South direction of Tenerife along the Canary Islands. The area around Las Americas contains many beaches and majority of these beaches are artificial and built by the special sand which is imported from Africa. The naturally available sand in the island is black and it gets too hot during the season of summer, so one need to be careful.

Playa de Estrode- La Coruna:

This beautiful beach is located at a distance of eight-one kilometers from La Coruna in the region of Galicia. This is a white sandy beach and covers an area of five hundred kilometers and the water here is mostly calm and cool. This beach remains quiet mostly except the weekend as the local residents visit the beach on these days.

Playa de Conil de la Frontera- Cadiz:

This is located along the south coastal line of Spain where there are number of fine beaches starting from Tarifa towards Huelva. These beaches are mostly windy and are perfect for the water sports activities. All of these beaches are very clean and sandy and perfect for beach vacations.

Playa de Mataro- Barcelona:

This is fine golden sandy beach which covers an area of five kilometers along the Mediterranean Sea and a perfect place in Catalonia to enjoy the vacations.

Playa de Barbate- Cadiz:

There are many fine beaches in Barbate including Zahara de los Atunes, Canillos, Mangueta, Los Canos de Meca and many others and all these beaches are white sandy beaches and perfect place to enjoy the beach holidays. Most of these beaches are very clean and very peaceful. If you are in Cadiz, then you must visit these beaches to have great entertainment.
